

Guarantee of service

In accordance with requirements specified in the Government Information (Public Access) Regulation 2009 Pillar is required to disclose the following information: the statutory body's guarantee of service.

Pillar does not have a statutory guarantee of service. It has contractual obligations to its trustee clients and provides customer services to the members of its clients' superannuation funds.